MR. GLENN RODERMAN,

The letter will come for the wall after im home for Christmas. This is just an in between letter to let you know that you are appreciated.

I am very well pleased with the job you did. The great thing is that for a great man like you it comes natural. In and out of the court room you are a man's man. The kind of man that everybody looks up to. From the way you dress to the way you talk, walk and your level of confidence that you portray.

$10,300.00 was a drop in the bucket and well spent money for the representation that you gave me. It wasn't hard work that gave us the great results, it was just you being you!

Great Job and Thank You,
Frank Grice

Mr. Roberman,

I was just stopping by to tell you the good news that Judge Beach terminated my probation. That's the best outcome possible. I can't thank you enough. I was also checking to see if you still needed a TV hung and sound system hooked up. The Super Bowl is Sunday and I have ~~some~~ Saturday free after about noon, and would like very much to do that for you. I know your schedule is very busy, but give me a call whenever you get a free second.

Much thanks again!

Dear Mr.  RODERMAN:

Thanks very much for speaking to George about my practice.

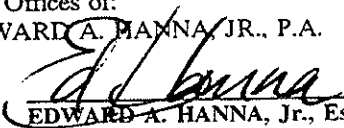

While George is quite correct, that I have preferred to develop a mostly-Civil practice, I have, nevertheless, been fortunate enough to encounter a number of matters, in which a Defendant or Subject seeks to "cooperate" with the U.S. Department of Justice, and he/she or their attorneys require the services of a former Federal Prosecutor, of long experience and for whom the doors remain open, to help develop and maximize the potential benefits of the relationship.

In this respect - ironically - the fact that I do not practice criminal defense on a regular basis, is perceived as an advantage for the client, rather than a disadvantage. Moreover, I continue to have a certain relationship with one of the agencies which also enables me, occasionally, to be of some assistance to both the "cooperating" client and the Department.

I am very pleased to have finally met you, after hearing so much about your own quite-remarkable practice from several other of your clients. Truly, your accomplishments are often described by your clients in a most remarkable manner. In addition to George and Adele, I've also known Ralph Capone and his family, and a number of your other clients for many years, and I will tell you, quite frankly, that I have never heard the accomplishments of another attorney - no matter how profound the success - described in quite the same glowing terms with which your clients recount yours.

I hope very much that we will be able to speak again, in the not too distant future. And, I hope that the enclosed materials may be of interest to you. Certainly, I would be very pleased, if I could ever be of assistance to you. Thank you very much again for your interest.

Yours Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rodman,

I am sorry! Keeping the truth away from you has made me blind in my own eyes - for sport yours. Your trust & faith in me despite all, your kind words & caring acts have taught me many things that I will cherish for years to come. How I wish we had met under better circumstances, but meeting you was a life changing experience & my gratitude & appreciation somehow cannot be aptly expressed in more words. I'm truly obliged for years to come. Best regards,
Patricia

Dear Helen: When I
question to say, the gift you gave me to buy and me was our lives! It's much easier to pay 17 dollars when you have 2 minutes,

of $500. I believe we paid $1,000 already on the $3,000 we had owe you $1,500 more.

It really made me smile.
It's great to be

I know that even when our gratitude goes on

Glenn R. Roderman, P.A.
Courthouse Square - Suite 201

Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301

Dear Mr. Roderman:

As I look back at 2009 and the things for which I am grateful, YOU stand out at the top of the list. You took the monkey off of my sons' back and mine as well. As you know, we bring our children into this life and we try to teach them right from wrong and we try to give them the guidance so they can reach their goals and establish a good life.

Unfortunately things do not always turn out the way we plan. Very often there are some twists and turns that we do not expect nor can we predict. As I told you in our first telephone conversation, if my son didn't have bad luck, he wouldn't have any luck. But it looks like his/our luck changed when we met you!

Lord knows, I wish we had met you when the whole ordeal began. The first time we went down for a hearing, in 2004, and I had contacted the first lawyer who was recommended by a friend of a friend. I had no idea what lawyer to speak to so I paid him to look into the case and be at the court when we went to FL. As you know, he did not show up and dropped the case when it got a little complicated even though I assured him that he would get paid if it went further.

When he dropped the case, I was distraught and a bundle of nerves, how could my child be going to jail? I spoke to another lawyer and as you know, the nightmare continued until July 30, 2009.

I can't thank you enough for helping my son get a second chance. It is still difficult because he has not been able to find employment, but we are working through things as best we can.

It is with joy in my heart that I write this letter and wish you a wonderful holiday season. May the New Year grant you the ability to continue helping others and bringing relief and happiness to them as well. God bless you and yours and from the bottom of my heart, THANK YOU so very much!

Sincerely,

Maria LaBoy

Dear Mr. Roderman:

Firstly, Happy Holidays to you and your family, friends and associates as well. I would like to sincerely thank you for your professionalism and expertise concerning my legal matter. It is rare to find an individual in your trade who actually exceeds expectations and whose word is solid. You were similar to a wind of fresh air in a smoke filled room. Mere words cannot explain the relief and gratitude felt after receiving the decision in my case. You are the bonafide article and in my opinion, the epitome of what a legal adviser is supposed to be. I cannot thank you enough for eliminating the tension and frustration this event has caused. I speak for myself as well as my family, as it is with unceasing gratification that this message is delivered. Once again, thank you for your time and patience on this matter. Best Wishes, Counselor.

Sincerely,
Raymon Laboy

Dear Mr. Roderman,

Thank you very much. I was so glad to see your face. I knew once I spoke to you things would start to change!

At start by saying you are one of most honorable man that I have had the opportunity to meet in my lifetime! you are a rare breed that puts honor and service for justice before money! You came here to see me, to listen to me, without regard for monetary gain! you are truly a man that God and your family should be proud of!

Dear Glenn,

Again I come to you in dire straights. Unfortunately, I have again crossed swords with the mighty establishment to my detriment. I came to you frightened and distressed. Thank the Lord there is a Glenn Roderman, Counselor supreme. In your psychological approach, you listened and then calmly outlined the legal pro and con approaches. Even though some of the cons were difficult to accept, still you gave me confidence that a beneficial outcome will be achieved.

Your sincerity and compassion gave me considerable encouragement and relief. However, in our talks, you made me realize that I had to own-up to my responsibilities, not only to myself, but to the formidable establishment, my parents and you. I owe you an enormous debt. If not for your professional skills influential contacts, my life, present and future would be very unpleasant. I'm following your advice religiously, adhering to the establishment's requirements and instructions. I've noticed and people have commented that my whole demeanor and physical appearance has changed for the better.

Glenn, we meet people throughout our lives that have that resounding effect on us. In my life, you are and always will be the guiding light that influences my thoughts and actions. I hope I have matured to understand that I must control my impulses and give greater thought to my actions. Your help and guidance have given me a new lease on life, which I shall heed with tenacious resolve.

I and my parents thank you and your staff for your professional help and warm consideration. May we be forever friends. Thank you.

Your indebted client,

Gary Duchan
